O Van Wert High, the school we love!

DEDICATION

MR. HERBERT JONES

The Class of 1956 has chosen you, Mr. Jones, to receive the highest tribute we can pay. Your untiring effort and excellent musicianship have given all of us at Van Wert High an appreciation for really good music. The interest you have shown in us, both in musical organizations and in our individual problems, has meant more than we can say. To you, therefore, we dedicate this thirty-seventh volume of the Excalibur.

Cougar Lettermen Spark '55 Champs

Once more Van Wert has had an undefeated football team, winning eight games and tying one. The Cougar seniors have been unbeaten two years in succession and have lost only two games in their entire football career. This year it was more difficult than ever to remain undefeated because the Cougars were the special target of every team.

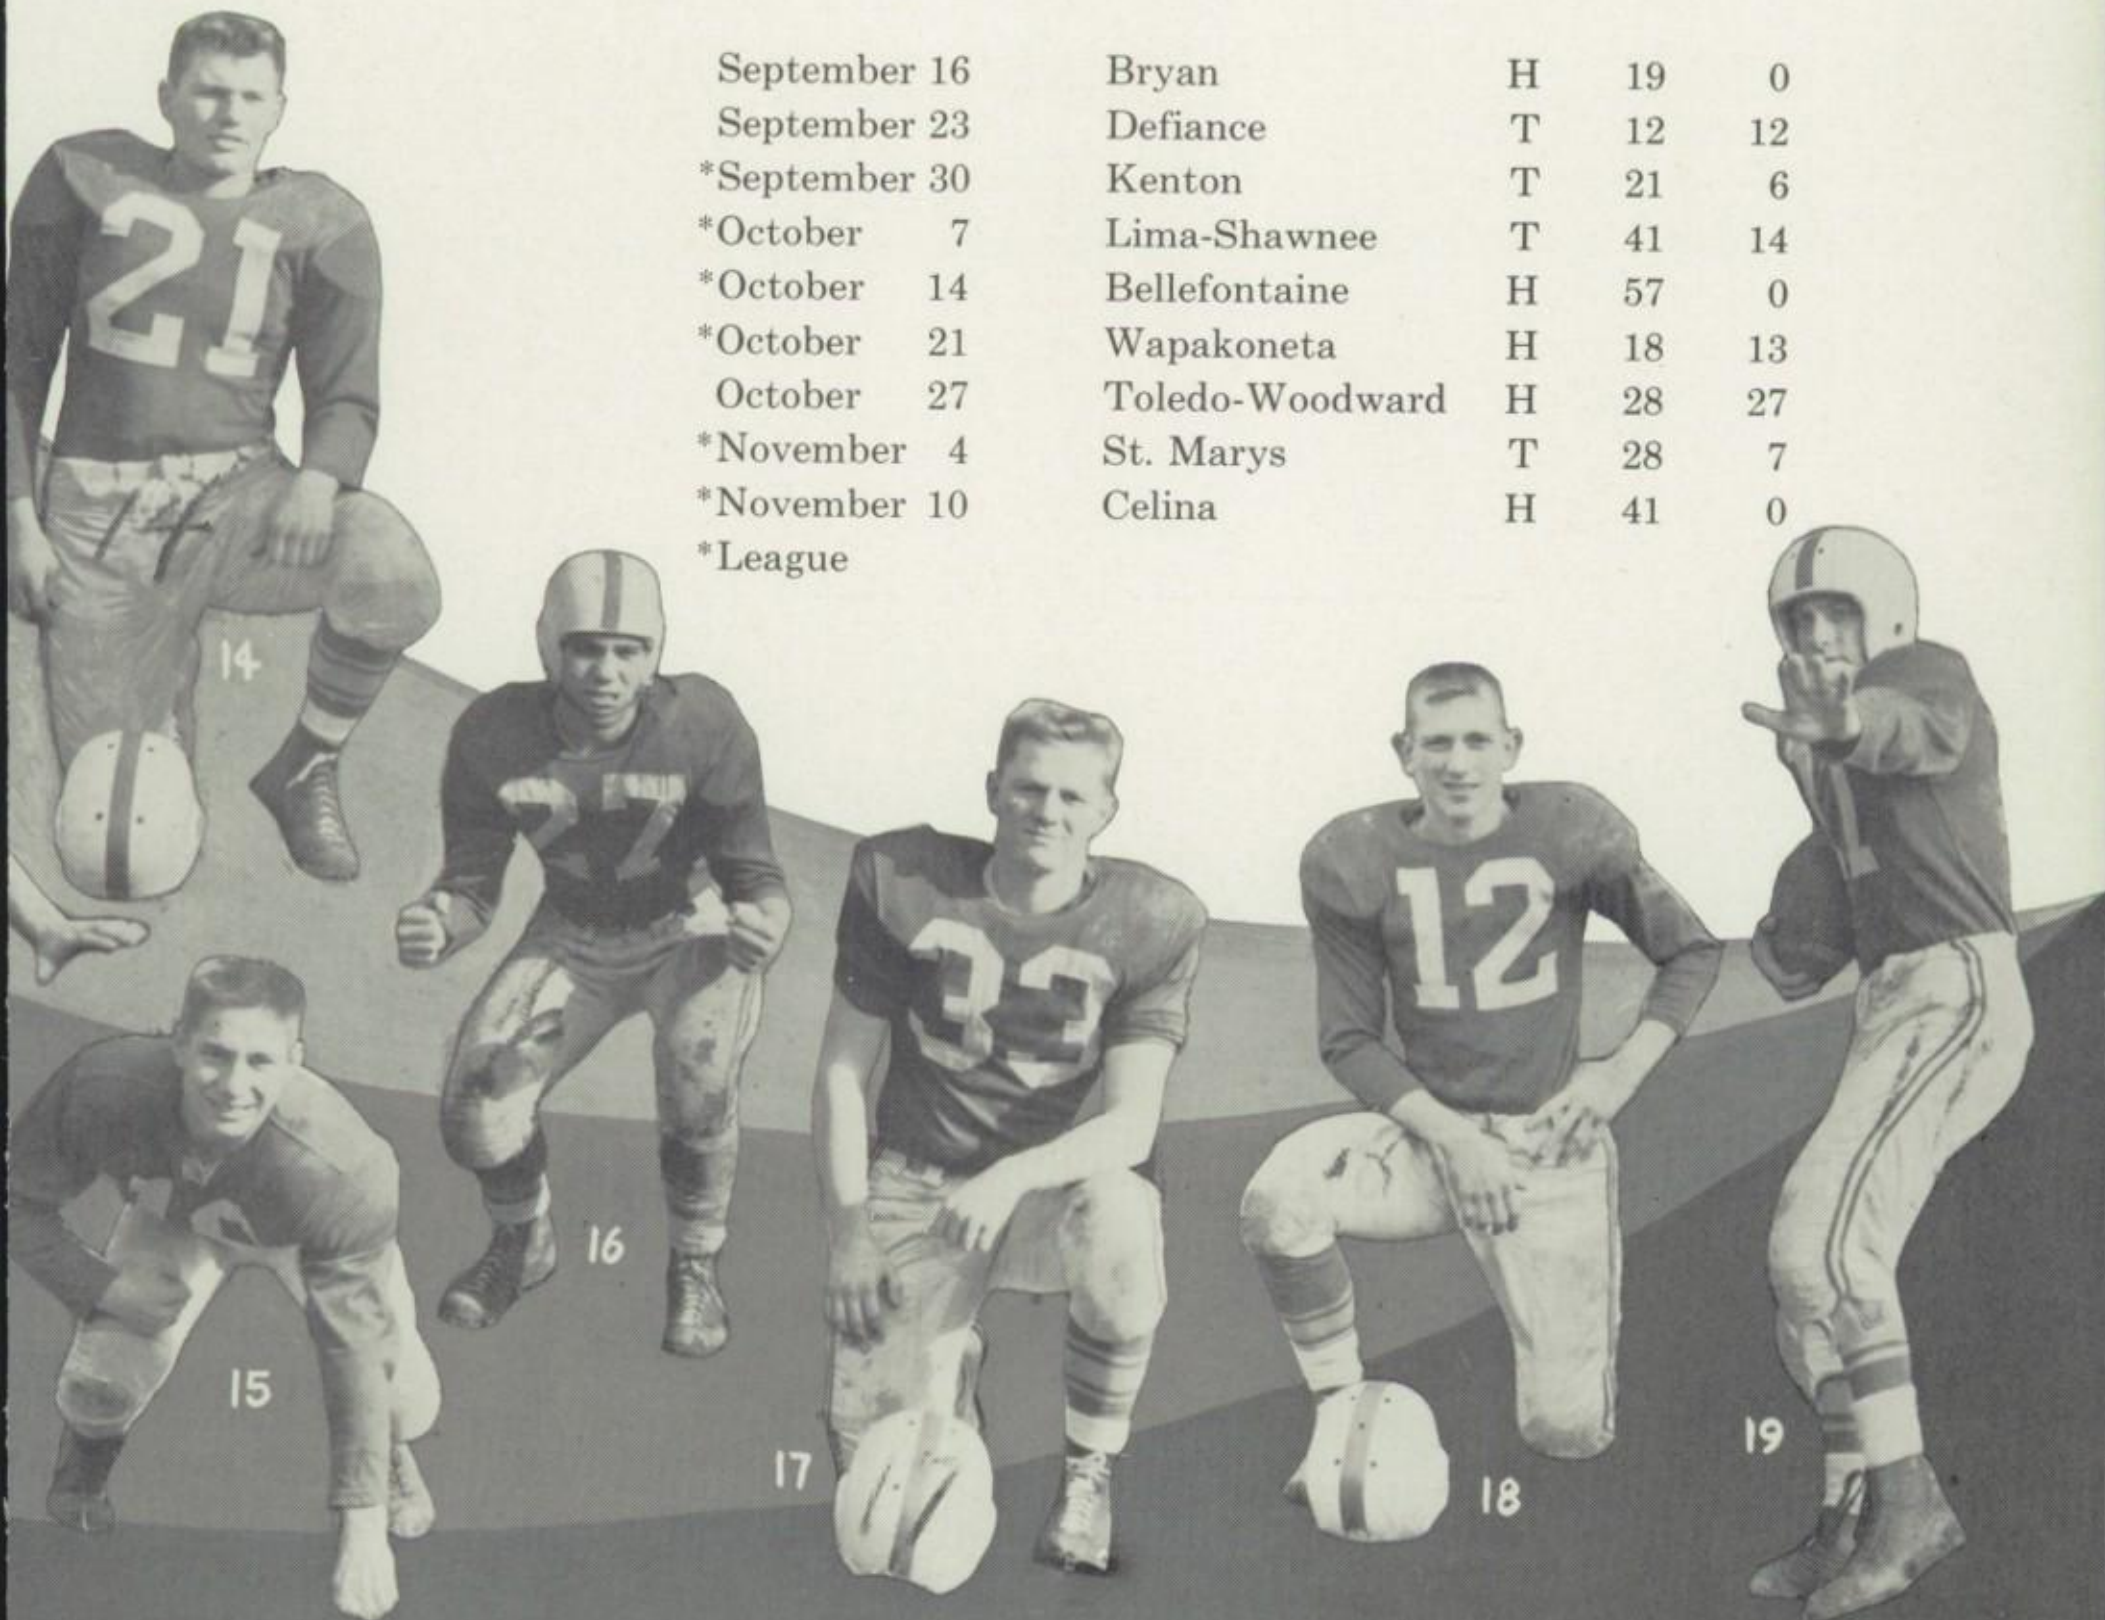

During the early part of the season the team, lacking experience, had a rough time, but with each win the boys gained confidence and played real football. Once past Toledo and Wapak, they rolled up the victories and climaxed the season by beating St. Marys and giving Coach Smith his hundredth win for Van Wert High.

Besides winning honors as a team, the Cougars received some high individual honors. Named to the Western Buckeye League first offensive team were Larry Feeney, tackle; John Edwards, guard; Jim Jones, center; Bob Young, fullback; and Ron Dierks, halfback. Places on the first defensive League team went to linebackers Jim Jones and Jim Dilbone. Dilbone also rated the All-State first team and Jones made the All-State third team. Bob Young was chosen for a position on the Ohio All-Star Team, which saw action in Canton in August. Congratulations to the team and the coaching staff on this record of two years without defeat.

If anybody can do it, Smitty can!

Freshman Football — the lettermen of tomorrow

Each year the coaching staff of Van Wert High School provides a football class for the younger boys who hope to play varsity football. This is called the freshman football team. This year the beginners played five games and came out with the short end of the score: Defiance 14-0, Coldwater 8-6, St. Marys 27-0, Delphos 12-0, and Shawnee 17-0. You must not criticize the coach or the players for this record for the simple reason that the boys were out there to learn the fundamentals of football and not necessarily to win. With the basic training and the experience acquired this year, many of these players will be able to win positions on the Varsity come next fall.

Marching Band

The Marching Band, directed by Mr. Herbert Jones, averages one hundred students. This year the band looked really sharp at the football games in their new uniforms of red and gray with white cross belts, spats, and gloves. The band participates in Memorial Day, Peony Festival, and Fall Festival parades. It also adds color and zest to the Van Wert County Fair.

By mid-year they know their way around

Freshmen, now seasoned veterans, look forward to another year

On September 12, 1955, one hundred seventy-five "greenies" proudly entered the doors of high school, only to find ourselves completely lost in the confusion of beginning activities. After a few weeks of forgetting locker combinations and room numbers, we settled down to the routine business of school and elected class officers and representatives to the Student Council.

On the reserve basketball team we proudly cheered Jim Bell, Charles Young, Bob Matthias, Rodger Bechtol, Don Beck, Tom Reynolds, Larry Holden, Charles Ingman, Gary Patterson, and Carl With-erow. Several of our classmates carried the pigskin for the freshman team and occasionally for the varsity.

We chose Sara Drury as our attendant to the Homecoming Queen. We were proud of the many freshmen who were active members of the high school band, and of our three reserve cheerleaders.

With all this to our credit, we feel we have taken our first big step on the stairway of higher education, and we are very happy to turn over our job as "greenies" to the incoming freshman class as we journey on to the sophomore step of Van Wert High School.

Hi-Y promotes Christian living and service

The Hi-Y began its year with the induction of members at St. Marks Lutheran Church. During the year the club assumed the responsibility for the Y.M.C.A. school membership, sponsored the Thanksgiving assembly, was host to the District Seven spring meeting, entertained the Senior Y-teens, and assisted in the City Cleanup Drive. Club representatives to the Youth and Government meeting in Columbus were Larry Smith, delegate; Dave Gamble, alternate; Frank Gilland, reporter; and Tom Harden, nominee for Speaker of the House from Northwestern Ohio, and appointed Majority Leader of the House. Mr. Manken was club adviser.

Officers

Devon Bricker, treasurer; Tom Harden, secretary; Vern Laing, president; Larry Lehman, vice president; Jess Cooper, chaplain; Frank Gilland, reporter.

The Student Council, our student governing body, plays a vital role in school activity. Its members are the four class presidents and representatives from home-rooms. The object of the council is to promote greater school unity, better co-operation between students and faculty, and better school spirit and conduct. To reach these goals, five squads are appointed: social squad, headed by Judy McCollum; courtesy, Mary Ellen Keith; finance, Sheila Hallam; conduct, Opal Clouse; and assembly, Ronnie Dierks. Activities include the Student Loan Plan, a worthwhile program initiated this year; hall monitors stationed in the upper and lower halls; a dance; and financing the telephone for student use. Mr. Gallapoo and Mr. Baker are the advisers.

Officers

Mary Blake, secretary; Jim Jones, president; Larry Smith, vice president.

Juniors take "Time Out for Ginger"

The junior class presented "Time Out for Ginger", a recent Broadway hit by Ronald Alexander. Directed by Clyde Coon, speech instructor of the high school, the cast ably performed this hilarious comedy in three acts which centers around a banker's tomboy daughter who wants to play football — and does. Presented November 15 and 16, the play was thoroughly enjoyed by the audiences.

In Memoriam

Juniors say farewell to a happy, carefree year

This year as the juniors walked in the doors of Van Wert High School, we had a different feeling because we were upper classmen. One of the first things we did was to elect the officers named below.

Placed on the undefeated football team were Jerry Baer, John Edwards, Ron Dierks, Larry Smith, Larry Feeney, Dave Gamble, Paul Schwinnen, Bill Winters, and Joe Agler, who unfortunately suffered a broken ankle at the start of the season.

For the third year, the junior class chose Nan Cowan as Homecoming attendant.

"Time Out for Ginger" was a popular choice for the class play.

Eight juniors played basketball: Larry Ducheney, Dave Gamble, Jerry Baer, Don Good, Paul Schwinnen, Jim Smith, Ron Dierks, and Larry Smith.

Juniors playing baseball were Larry Smith, Louis Thomas, Larry Kreischer, Dave Gamble, and Ron Dierks.

That winds up the year for us as juniors, but we have one more year. We hope it will bring as many happy times and leave as many pleasant memories as the past years.

Junior Y-Teens

More than ninety freshmen and sophomore girls joined the Junior Y-Teens this year. The meetings were held twice a month, once during activity period and once at the Y.W.C.A. In addition to arranging and conducting interesting and informative meetings, the girls helped in many service projects. To raise money for expenses, the members held bake sales and sold Christmas cards. They worked with the Senior Y-Teens to present the Easter Assembly and to make the Cupid's Karnival Dance a success. The officers (at right) are Joyce Feasby, president; Joyce Beall, secretary; Lora Verne Allen, treasurer; Carol Heshner, vice president.

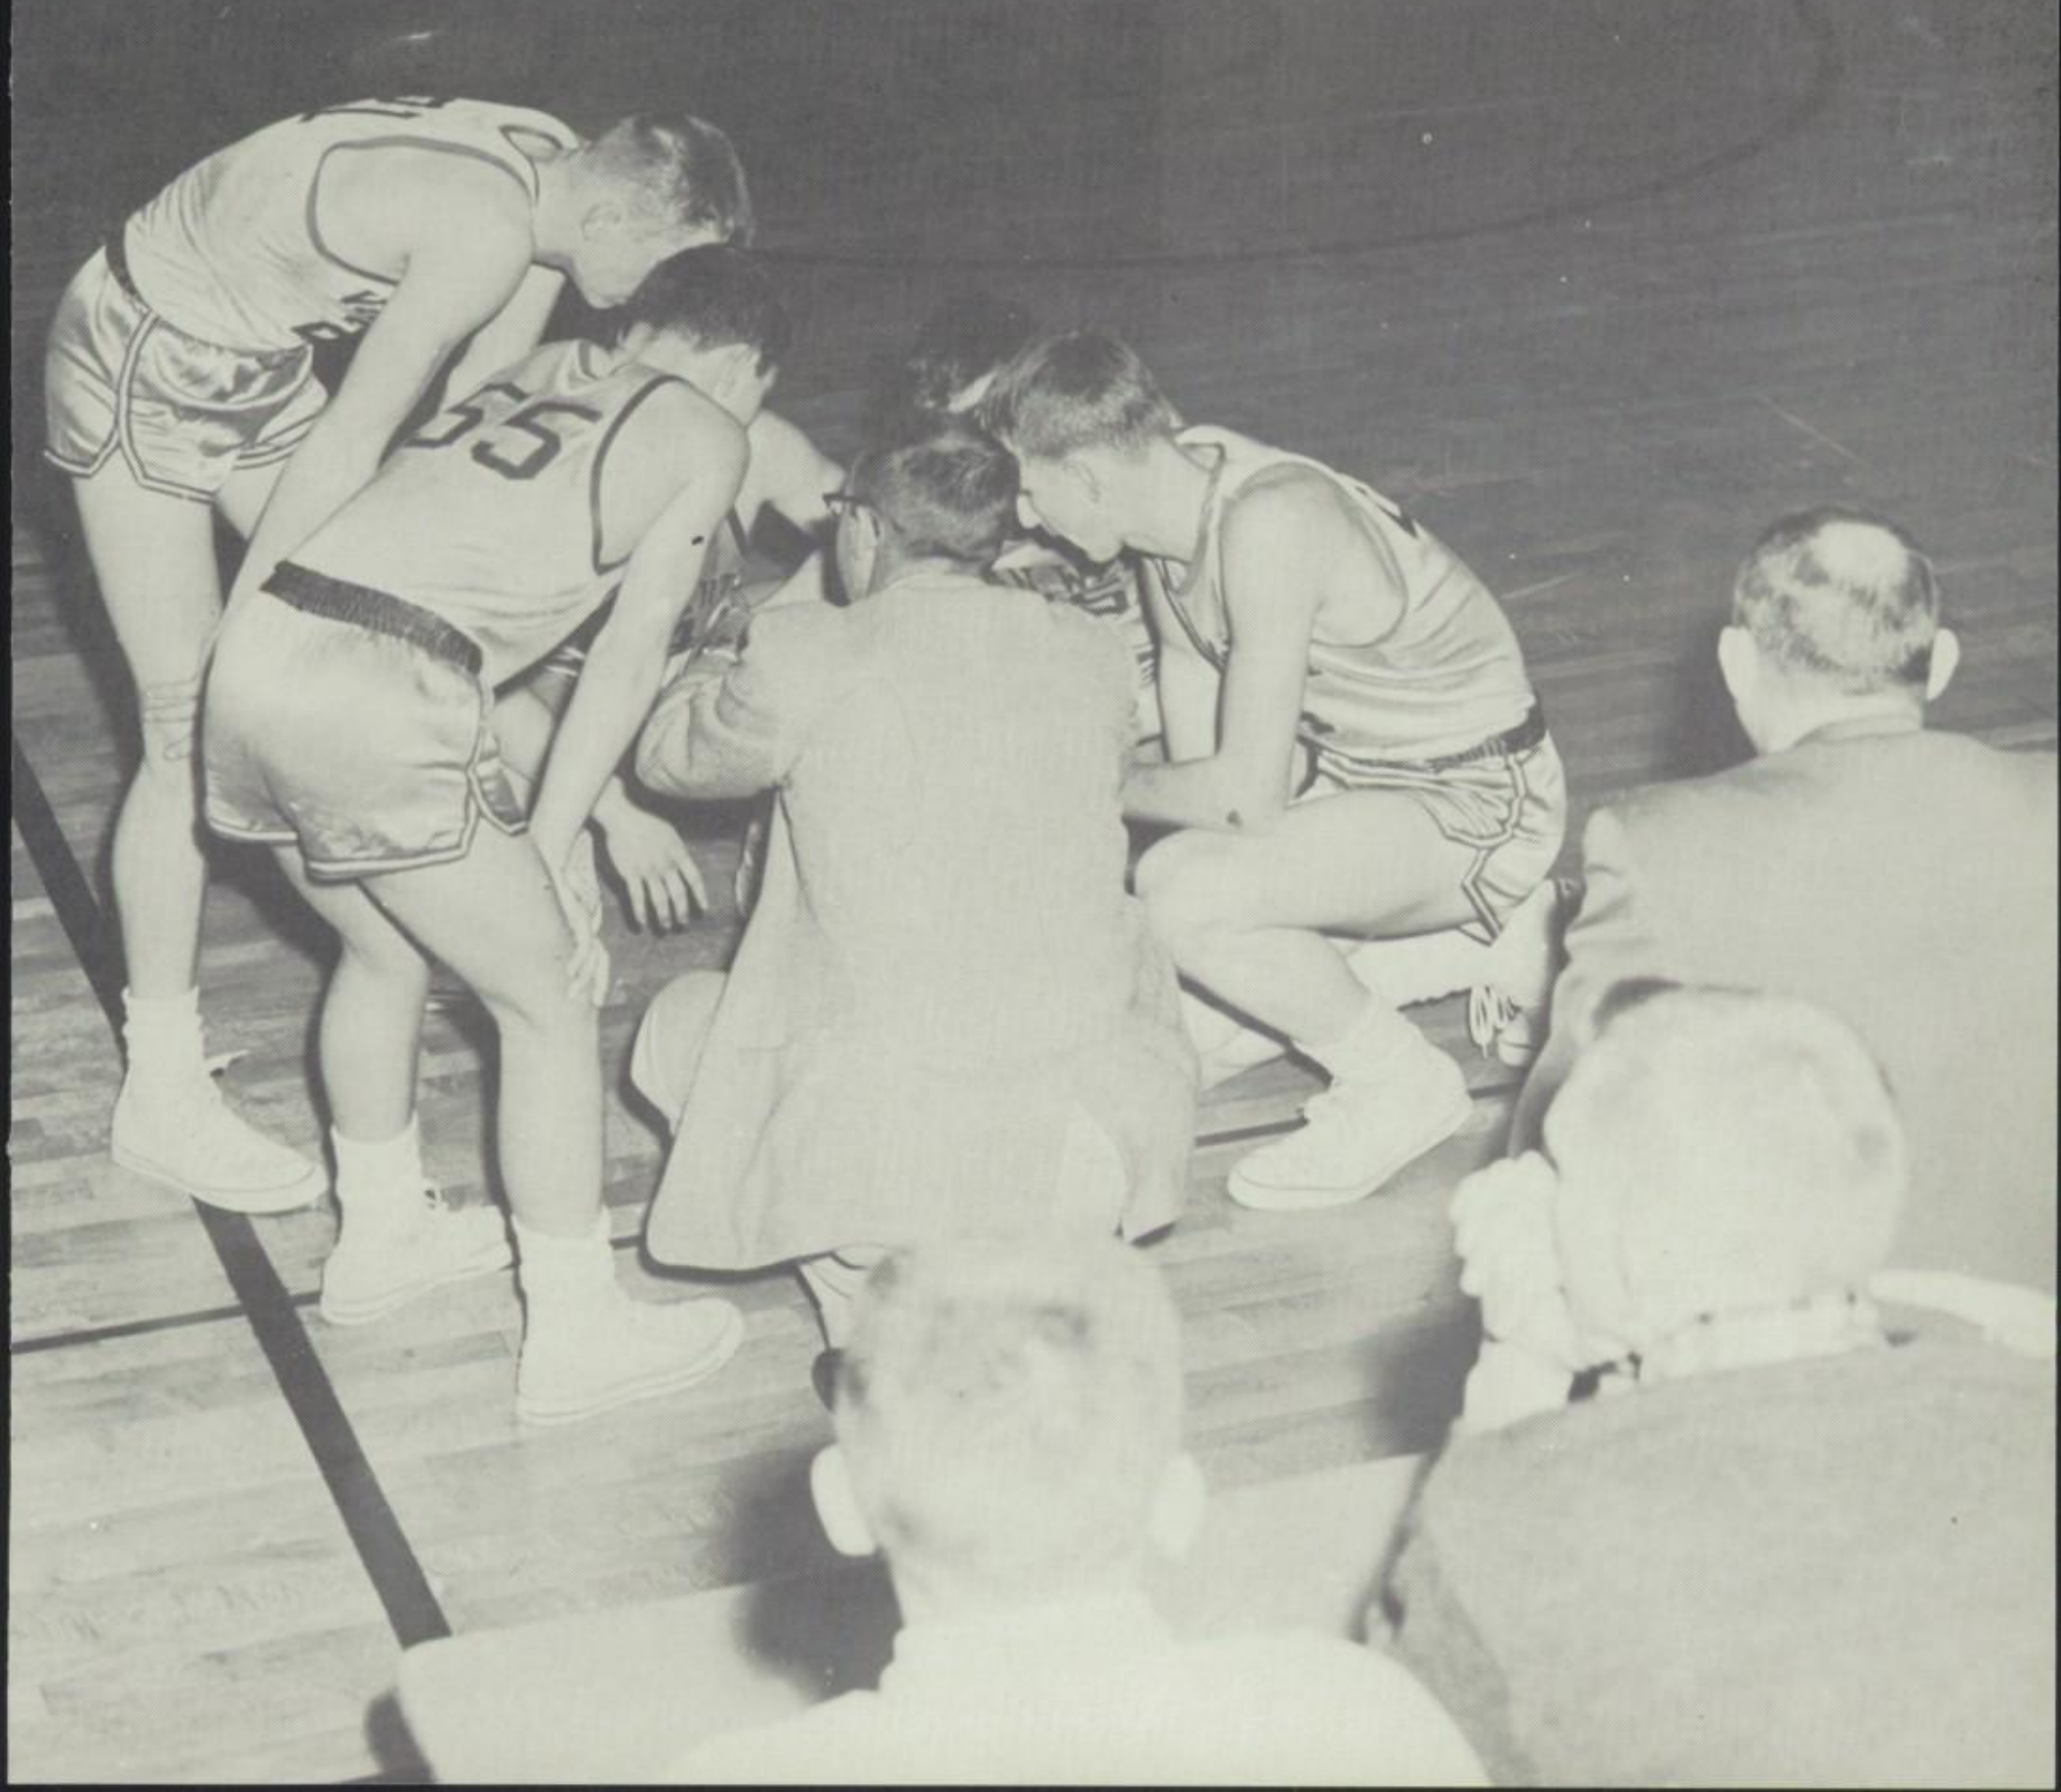

Winter

Falling snow, basketball games, clubs, penny lunches, Christmas carols, vacations, dances

A Cappella Choir members gain appreciation through performance

The Van Wert a cappella choir consists of nearly one hundred sophomores, juniors, and seniors. During the year the choir has sung at school assemblies and for graduation ceremonies, given concerts for various community clubs, and presented "Vocal Varieties." It is a coveted honor to be a member of this organization, one of the finest choirs in the state. This is the seventh year in which the choir has received a superior rating in the state contest, as well as in the district competition. Several members of the choir also have won superior and excellent ratings in district and state contests. Mr. Herbert Jones, the director, has given much time and effort to make the choir one of our school's outstanding organizations.

The basketball season of 1955-56 was a success in many ways. Van Wert won a good share of games and best of all, there was renewed interest on the part of the student body. The Cougar cagers were honored to have as a member of their team the high scorer of the league, Don Good. This in itself marks a good team. The best part of the season was tournament time. It seemed to put the whole high school on their toes, The Cougars had a few bad breaks and lost their second game by a very slim margin. We are very proud of this team and its record.

V-Club members wear the symbol of sportsmanship

The V-Club differs from other organizations in that it is an honor club rather than an activity club. To accept membership in this organization is to accept responsibility in upholding the high ideals of sportsmanship and clean living. Boys who have earned their varsity "V" for successful participation in athletics are eligible for membership.

Masque and Gavel develops dramatic talent

The Masque and Gavel Society is an organization open to students interested in any phase of speech, such as dramatics, declamation, and debate. Although it is a new organization this year, it has an unusually large membership of thirty-seven members. This year's officers were Jim Jones, president; Miriam Price, vice president; and Linda Bagley, secretary-treasurer. These people also held these same offices for the National Thespian group which was organized just this year. Mr. Coon, the speech teacher, is the adviser for both organizations.

Debate

Assemblies

Friday afternoons during football and basketball seasons, yells and cheers could be heard issuing from the study hall. Although pep assemblies made up the bulk of the programs, others were centered around holidays, entertainment, and the giving of awards. Miss Merton's fifty foot speech, Anita Tanner's Easter presentation from the Terrible Meek, and the launching of the Student Loan Fund are a few of the assemblies which we shall always remember.

This year when we entered Van Wert High School, we were no longer little "greenies", but we were not yet upper classmen. After getting settled and electing officers, we began to take a definite part in school life.

Representing us in athletics were Larry Bowersock, Danny Butler, Larry Feeney, Roger Gipe, Onley Heath, Larry Johnson, Jim Imler, Charles Kanney, Robert Mohr, Jerry Nills, Terry Oetzel, Dick O'Mara, Howard Shaw, George White, Jack White, Don Black, and Bill Winters.

At the Homecoming activities, our attendant to the queen was Nancy Williman. We elected Mary Jane Ross, Jim Imler, Ron Sherer, Opal Clouse, Nancy Gipe, and Mary Blake to the Student Council, where Mary Blake was chosen secretary.

In other organizations, we were active too. We furnished all the officers and cabinet members for the Junior Y-Teens. Four of our members served on the G. A. A. cabinet and five served on the Rendezvous Committee. We contributed twenty-six members to the choir and twenty-five to the band. Sally Thompson and Chris Griffiths won places on the reserve debate team.

Cheering the boys on to victory were Diane Folck, varsity cheerleader, and Ann Hartge, reserve cheerleader.

We of the sophomore class have found this year to be a very enjoyable and important one, and we know that the two remaining years in high school will be even better.

Senior Y-Teens uphold high ideals of service.

The Senior Y-Teens, organized in 1946, is sponsored by Van Wert High School and the Y.W.C.A. The purpose of this organization is "to build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians. In this endeavor we seek to understand Jesus, to share His love for all people, and to grow in the knowledge and love of God." This year the organization contributed time and money to many worthy causes. The girls helped with the tuberculosis envelopes, the Heart Fund, the Polio Fund, and the serving of the business women's dinners. Together with the Junior Y-Teens, they sponsored the Kupid's Karnival Dance and the Easter Assembly.

F. H. A. practice gracious living

The theme, Training today makes leaders tomorrow, led the Future Homemakers of America through a good year, beginning with wiener roasts, continuing with a Halloween party, installation of officers, programs on creative hobbies, and a record hop.

Scarlet Quill — the ears and eyes of Van Wert High

Headlines tell the story.

Our school newspaper, the Scarlet Quill, was published by the journalism class. During the school year, nine interesting and informative issues, with new and unusual features, were published to keep students up-to-date on school activities. The Quill staff, together with the Excalibur staff, sponsored the Homecoming activities. Phyllis Gribler and Shirley Dustman served as editors-in-chief this year, and Mr. Clyde Coon, journalism teacher, was the adviser.

Baseball — Cougars complete 10-5 season

The Cougar nine had a good season this spring despite bad weather. Although the boys weren't able to play all their league games, they were beaten in league play only by St. Mary's. Van Wert went to the finals in the sectional tournament at Defiance and was beaten by a team that went to the state tournament at Columbus.

Seniors Bob Young on the mound, Jim Dilbone at third base, and Larry Wills in several positions furnished power both on the field and at bat.

The Cougars had a well rounded team this year; and since they lost only three men through graduation, the prospects for next year are bright.

At ease

Concert Band

The concert band presents summer concerts, Christmas vespers with the choir, and a formal spring concert, and takes part in baccalaureate and commencement exercises.

This spring, after receiving a superior, or one, rating in the district contest in Lima, the band went to Columbus for the state contest. It was the first year that Van Wert had participated in the state competition, and we were proud to return home with an excellent, or two, rating. Several band members also received excellent and superior ratings in district and state solo and ensemble contests.

The Band Parents Organization as well as band concerts helped earn money for new uniforms, instruments, and travel expenses. In the past several years, the band has purchased concert and street drums, tympani, chimes, baritone horns, and bass clarinets, giving a new depth to the sound of the band.

Career Day

For the first time in several years Van Wert High School held Career Day. On March 15, no regular classes met, and the students attended special meetings at the high school. A general session was held in the morning. Dr. Walter A. Zaugg, professor from Ohio Northern University, gave the keynote speech, "This Is Your Day." He listed four points for successfully reaching one's goal. During the remainder of the day, students attended discussion periods covering thirty-one topics. Everyone agreed that Career Day was an informative and valuable experience.

Seniors present inspiring performance of THE ROBE

"The Robe," a drama adapted from Lloyd Douglas's novel of the same title, was presented by the senior class May 4 and 5, and was directed by Mr. Clyde Coon. The play centers around the crucifixion of Christ and the part His robe plays in the lives of several people, especially Diana and Marcellus, who go to their death willingly for their new faith, Christianity. The Lincoln auditorium was filled both nights with an appreciative audience, which witnessed fine performances by all members of the large cast.

Seniors 1956

Officers

Devon Bricker, vice president; Tom Harden, president; Rita Brown, treasurer; Frank Gilland, secretary; Mr. Gallapoo, adviser.

Well, it was here at last, our final year in high school. We selected our class officers with the gravity befitting those of our stature.

Our class assumed its position of leadership. Acting as presidents of school organizations were Linda Kirchenbauer, Senior Y-Teens; Karen Katterheinrich, GAA; Bill Emerick, VIC; Jim Jones, Student Council; Sheila Hallam, FTA; Vern Laing, Hi-Y; and Tom Harden, National Honor Society and V-Club.

Sue Farlow, Linda Bagley, and Elaine Mericle cheered the athletic teams to victory. Linda Kirchenbauer, Sue Williman, Rachel Morris, Beverly Blake, and Lynnda Learey lent color to the band as they pranced down the field in their majorette uniforms.

Seniors contributing to the football team's success were Jess Cooper, Ron Miller, Harold Haight, Marvin Mihm, Walter Grunden, Art Good, Paul Sargent, Jim Gilliland, Tom Harden, Bob Young, Jim Jones, and Jim Dilbone, the latter two being singled out to receive honors for their spectacular feats with the pigskin.

Linda Kirchenbauer and Sue Williman were Queen and Senior Attendant respectively for the 1956 homecoming festivities.

On the basketball team were Bob Young, Jim Dilbone, Devon Bricker, and Larry Winhover; on the baseball team were Bob Young, Jim Dilbone, and Larry Wills.

Karen Katterheinrich and Mary Brooks were DAR contestants for the local chapter, and Joyce Williams was a state winner of the American Legion essay contest. Anita Tanner, Mary Brooks, Linda Bagley, Margie Buecker, Rachel Morris, Karen Katterheinrich, Sheila Hallam, Joyce Williams, Jerry Gribler, and Tom Harden were elected to the National Honor Society their junior year, and Vern Laing, Lynne Eikenbary, Charlene Bate, Shirley Dustman, and Dennis Dershem in their senior year. Eleven boys were designated as Junior Rotarians.

The Senior class play, "The Robe" had many of our number in its cast.

Seniors, we have closed the door on one phase of our life and opened it on another.

Un Pont Travers le Ciel, or A Bridge Across the Sky, was the theme for the 1956 Junior-Senior Prom. A beautiful golden bridge was the main attraction in the scene representing a park in Paris. The beautiful formals of the girls, the Grand March led by Ronnie Dierks and Carol Grindahl, and the music of Jimmy Stier and his orchestra made this a prom to remember.

Excalibur

Hours, "yea-on" hours of proofin' an' spoofin' an' goofin' and here it is—the 1956 Excalibur. This Excalibur, Van Wert High School's thirty-seventh yearbook, is more than just an annual to those of us who worked toward its completion; it is our senior year in words and pictures.

This Excalibur is the result of the work of many persons. The memorable dance at Homecoming and the barbecue before the Toledo football game were masterminded by Rachel Morris and Vern Laing. Rachel and Jerry Gribler, our excellent business managers, planned penny lunches, headed other money-making projects, and sold and distributed yearbooks. Phyllis Gribler stayed after school every night to make selling candy a profitable enterprise. Ronnie Miller, Tom Giessler, and Jess Cooper spent more hours counting tax stamps than they care to recall. The art work throughout the book is that of Linda Longwell, and the sports pages are Bob Young's work. Frank Gilland's original announcements over the P.A. system were most effective.

Mary Brooks and her aids penned and collected writeups, and Karen Katterheinrich, along with her helpers, typed and typed and typed. The wonderful cooperation of the administration, especially Mr. Baker, the help of Mr. White, Mr. Broom, and the merchants and townspeople have all meant much to us in creating this yearbook. Many persons have not been mentioned, but everyone on the staff has contributed something to help produce and finance this book.

This is your Excalibur, and we sincerely hope you like it.

Commencement — the seniors say goodbye

Although Baccalaureate was held in Lincoln Gym because of rain, the stadium was the site for the 85th annual commencement. Marching to our places in the stadium, we felt happy and expectant; but during the program as the choir sang its last number, the speaker finished, we received our diplomas, and marched back into the school, we were solemn and thoughtful, realizing that now we were on our own. As the word itself signifies, it was truly our Commencement.
